

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The Administration was notified today that there are six confirmed cases of COVID-19. Three at the High School, two at EverGreen Elementary, and one van driver. The District has conducted contact tracing and there are eight close contacts. The individuals have self-quarantined and will remain in isolation per Pennsylvania Department of Health guidelines. We will continue to keep the school community informed and maintain communication of COVID-19 related information.

Sincerely,
