

Dear Parents/Guardians,

The Administration was notified today that there are four confirmed cases of COVID-19. Two at EverGreen Elementary, one at the Middle School, and one at the High School. The District has conducted contact tracing and there are three close contacts. Also, on Friday 11/5/21 there were three cases at the High School with three close contacts. The individuals have self-quarantined and will remain in isolation per Pennsylvania Department of Health guidelines. We will continue to keep the school community informed and maintain communication of COVID-19 related information.

Sincerely,
